

Annai Hajira Women's College

Melapalayam, Tirunelveli -627 005

Accredited with B++ Grade by NAAC (CGPA 2.95 in I Cycle)

(A Unit of As-Sathiq Educational Society)

(Affiliated to Manonmaniam Sundaranar University)

Anti-Ragging Day

Event Summary:

Name of the event	:	Anti-Ragging Day
Date of the event	:	14.08.2025
Venue	:	Seminar Hall
Participants	:	First and Second-year students of all Programmes
Outcome	:	Awareness on laws and punishments against ragging was Strengthened. Students realized the harmful impact of ragging through mimes and talks. Campus unity and safety values were reinforced among students.

Our college observed Anti-Ragging Day on 14th August 2025 with the theme “Say No to Ragging”, reaffirming the institution’s commitment to fostering a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment. The program commenced with a Qirat by Saniya M., I B.Com, followed by the rendition of Tamizhthai Vazhthu. J. Benezia Judith, III B.Sc. Computer Science and Student Secretary of the Anti-Ragging Cell, welcomed the gathering with an enthusiastic address.

The Presidential Address was delivered by our Principal, Dr. K. Rajab Fathima, who emphasized the significance of upholding dignity and respect among peers. She highlighted the collective responsibility of staff and students in ensuring a ragging-free campus and nurturing a supportive educational atmosphere. As part of the awareness program, Dr. S. Sabreen Muneer, Member of the Anti-Ragging Cell, delivered a highly informative talk focusing on the legal implications of ragging. She elaborated on the various sections of law that address ragging and explained the severe punishments for those found guilty.

A series of impactful mimes were performed by students from all three academic years, each delivering a powerful message against ragging:

- First-year students depicted the legal consequences and punishments faced by offenders.
- Second-year students performed under the theme “Your Fun Game Can Be Someone Else’s Pain,” emphasizing empathy and responsibility.

- Third-year students presented a hard-hitting mime aligned with the central theme "Say No to Ragging."

The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. R. Amutha, Physical Director and Member of the Anti-Ragging Cell, who appreciated the efforts of all participants and organizers. The event was further graced by the presence of IQAC members Dr.R.Anuradha (IQAC Coordinator), Dr.N.Ammakutti @ Sridevi (Assistant IQAC Coordinator), and Ms. T. Kamala (Hostel Warden), who lent their support and encouragement to the cause.

The program concluded with the National Anthem, leaving the audience with a strong and lasting message about the importance of mutual respect, safety, and zero tolerance toward ragging.

Dr. S. Sabreen Muneer, Member of the Anti-Ragging Cell addressing the students

II Year students performed under the theme "Your Fun Game Can Be Someone Else's Pain," emphasizing empathy and responsibility.

III year students presented a hard-hitting mime aligned with the central theme "Say No to Ragging."

First-year students depicted the legal consequences and punishments faced by offenders.

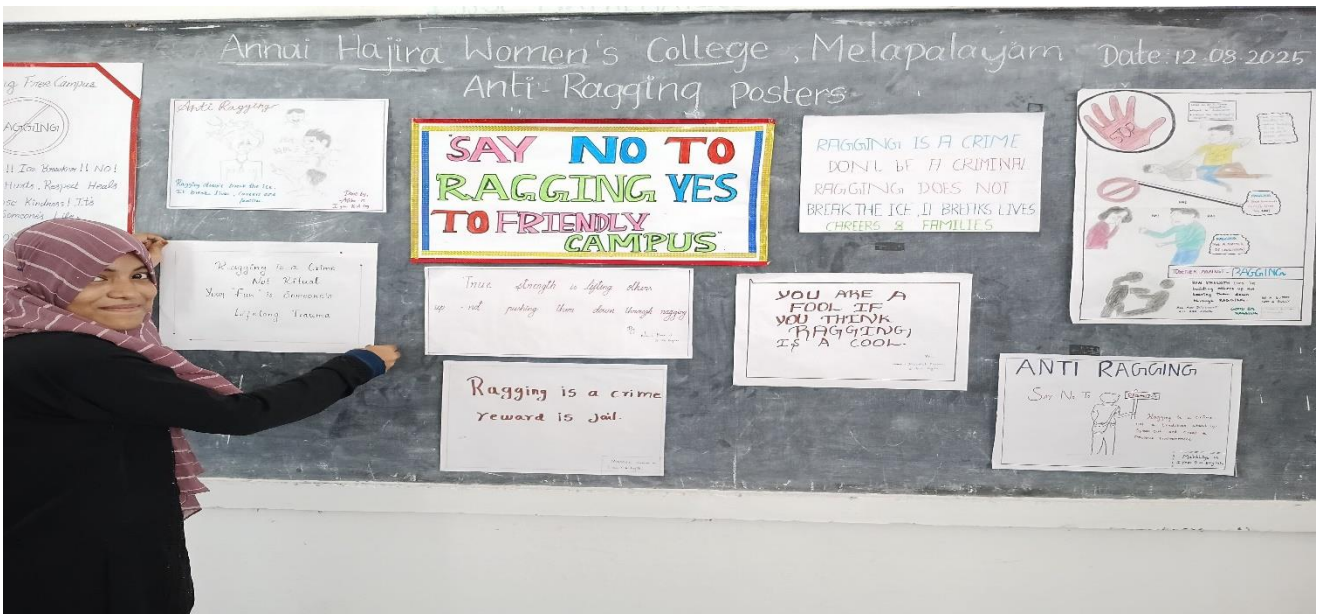

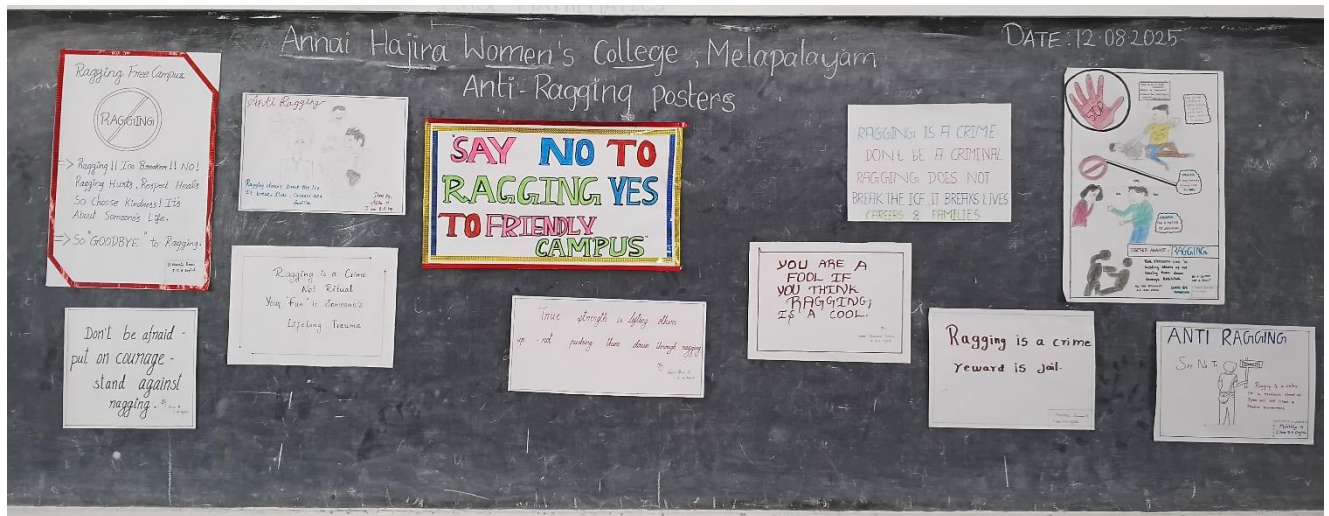

Mrs. R. Amutha, Physical Director and Member of the Anti-Ragging Cell proposed the vote of Thanks

Administration of Anti-Ragging Oath by Students

Poster presentations by students

Anti-Ragging Signature Campaign by Students

Anti-Ragging Signature Campaign by Students

Students at the Anti-Ragging Selfie Corner

